

Computer-Assisted TKR From Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center

Last Updated Wednesday, 02 April 2008

Jason E. Lang, M.D., an orthopaedic surgeon at Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center, will perform a computer-assisted total knee replacement that begins live at 12 Noon EDT, Friday, May 2. William G. Ward Sr., M.D., an orthopaedic surgeon who also performs joint replacements, will narrate the procedure and take questions from Internet viewers.

For more information about this live webcast, please go to www.OR-Live.com